

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. This smacks of an illegal hijacking of the airwaves to forward a partisan political agenda - exactly the opposite of the ideas underlying our free and Democratic society.

You pay for a license fee to use the airways, owned by the US Taxpayers. It is unfair and patently unbalanced to pre-empt programming to launch this attack on the US electoral process.

I ask that you strongly reconsider this action.
